

Accommodation for Patients and Relatives

Reasonably priced accommodation is available to patients and relatives attending the hospital. We have included some suggestions. Please note these are just suggestions. It is a good idea to book ahead if possible. If you are booking accommodation for long periods it is always worth asking if you can have a discount.

IMPORTANT if you have made a booking and are unable to keep it please cancel the booking. There is often a high demand on the accommodation options in this book and the room can then be used by someone else.
