RE: COVID-19 Update – Calvary Community Care Staff – Sydney Service Centre - Mandatory Mask Wearing

Dear Valued Client,

As you will have noticed Calvary Community Care staff are wearing masks when they care for you.

This complies with the latest requirement of NSW Health following local transmission of COVID-19 with NSW close and casual contact locations identified. Details are available at <https://www.health.nsw.gov.au/Infectious/covid-19/Pages/case-locations-and-alerts.aspx#close>.

Please ring to discuss with your Case Manager or our offices on 1300 797 522 if you have been to an identified location.

Masks will be worn when delivering care.

This is in the interest of maximising your and your loved ones health and wellbeing.

We are pleased that the current situation continues to be well monitored and managed.

This letter is simply to assure you and your families that Calvary is ready to respond quickly to the potential risks that may arise.

Calvary' continues its regular contact with our employees to provide updated information and instructions on how to deliver safe appropriate care which is compliant with Government and medical advice.

If you require additional support and assistance during this period, our team of Client Service Officers will be able to support you.

We are here to support you through this challenging period.

Our aim is to keep you and our employees safe. If you have any questions regarding Coronavirus (COVID-19), please do not hesitate to contact our Service Centre on 1300 797 522 or your Case Manager.

Further information about COVID-19 can be found at: <https://www.health.nsw.gov.au/Infectious/covid-19/Pages/home-care-latest-advice.aspx>
