

29 October 2021

Dear Resident or Family Member

RE: COVID-19 Update – Calvary Cessnock Retirement Community, NSW

We are pleased to inform residents and families that the situation has not changed since our last communication – there are no active cases of COVID-19 at Calvary Cessnock Retirement Community, NSW

We have completed a further round of testing of close contact residents and staff working in the area, and we have received confirmation today that all results have returned negative.

We continue to work closely with NSW Health, and upon their advice that the outbreak at Calvary Cessnock can be declared over, we will be delighted to welcome visitors back, and activities can return to normal consistent with COVID safe practices prior to the outbreak. We will keep you updated on the situation accordingly.

Please do not hesitate to contact the manager of your home should you have any questions or would like to discuss the individual care needs of your loved one.

For the latest NSW Health COVID-19 updates, please visit:

<https://www.health.nsw.gov.au/Infectious/covid-19/Pages/default.aspx>

For up-to-date information for all residents and family members, please visit Calvary's COVID-19 updates site regularly at: www.calvarycoronavirusupdates.org.au

We would like to take this opportunity to thank our residents and families for your patience, and working with us so generously to ensure the safety of your loved ones in our care.

Sincerely,

Martin Bowles
National CEO

Bryan McLoughlin
Regional CEO – NSW