

Calvary Oneplus Graduate Nurse Transition Program (GNTP)

At Calvary John James Hospital
For New Graduate RNs and Midwives

Calvary

John James Hospital

Continuing the Mission of the Sisters of the Little Company of Mary

What is the Graduate Nurse Transition Program?

A transitional program for newly registered graduates of nursing is recognised by Calvary as an important step in the ongoing commitment to novice nursing employees, ensuring learning opportunities for professional development. A Graduate Nurse Transition Program is an ongoing, practice-based program that enables graduates to learn the essential knowledge, skills and attitudes of their chosen profession with the support of a dedicated Learning and Development (L&D) Team and clinical preceptors.

How to apply:

Our Program Starts in 1st week of March

- Application opens in August
- Interview in September
- Please contact: Jennifer Kal via email
Jennifer.Kal@calvarycare.org.au or
Milan Adhikari via email
Milan.Adhikari@calvarycare.org.au
- Apply via link: www.calvarycare.org.au

Departments where the program runs:

- Perioperative – Scrub Scout, Anaesthetics and PACU
- Surgical – Orthopaedic, general surgical and paediatric
- Medical and Rehabilitation
- ICU/HDU
- Maternity ward – New Grad Midwife Program, Special Care Nursery, Birth Suite and Antenatal

The Program provides:

- 2 full days and 1 half day of orientation
- 16 hrs of joint study sessions – Calvary Bruce Private Hospital
- 22 hours of graduate workshops
- University of Tasmania's Clinical Honours Scholarship Program

You get:

Support provided throughout the year:

- Preceptors allocated for mirrored shifts for 4-6 weeks
- Supernumerary shifts for each clinical rotation
- Pastoral Care for emotional and well-being
- Dedicated clinical facilitators for each department
- Plus other Calvary employee benefits